Reflection

Even Peter's question is flawed; forgiveness is rarely a discreet, countable act. Granting forgiveness is not always as simple as checking a box to accomplish time number thirteen of the seventy-seven allotted. It can be hard to know when we've "achieved" full forgiveness; old hurts sometimes come back unexpectedly, revealing that they were not as healed as we once thought. More often, it is an ongoing process, one of changing our hearts, embracing humility and compassion, and being willing to be generous with others as God is with us.

The One Great Imperative

As we age, we can progressively slim down our spiritual vocabulary. Ultimately, we need only to do one thing—forgive. Forgive those who have hurt us, forgive ourselves for our shortcomings, and forgive God for those times when life seemed unfair. We need to do this so we do not die angry and bitter—which in the end is the only spiritual imperative there is.

Jesus makes this clear. In today's Gospel, he tells us that if we do not forgive others, God will not forgive us. Why not? Isn't God all-merciful? Can't God forgive everything? The issue is not on God's side, but on ours.

John Shea once wrote that the heavenly banquet table is open to everyone who is willing to sit down with everyone. There's the catch! That's why it is so difficult for God to forgive us if we do not forgive others. Simply put, there cannot be segregated tables in heaven where we get to sit down only with those persons with whom we are on good terms. Bitterness and hatred may not carry over into heaven. To be in intimacy, joy, and celebration with everyone, we need to be reconciled with everyone. This is an intrinsic imperative, not something God can change.

A friend of mine likes to say, "I try to be on good terms with everyone, knowing that I will be spending eternity with them." Sound advice.

On the Way Home from Mass...

How can we bring our experience of conflict to Jesus and ask him for help in our time of need?

To the People of Holy Cross Parish FAREWELL

As the termination dust gets lower and lower on the mountains, Diane & I begin to plan for our trip South for the winter. In that sense, this year is no different from the 20+ years that we have been “snow birds”, we will leave on September 30th. However, this time it IS different, since we will be leaving Alaska for good. We will not be flying back in the spring as snow birds, but will become permanent residents of Arizona.

It has been our pleasure to serve in this parish for the past 31 years. We arrived in Anchorage in June of 1992, being transferred from Memphis, TN, by Federal Express (FedEx) to fly as a Captain on the MD-11. I was assigned to Holy Cross in October of that year, as a Deacon to assist Fr. Ernie Muellerleile, the founding pastor of the parish. Mass was still being celebrated in the store front in the postal plaza. Soon after, we moved into the church here on Lore Road.

Together, Fr. Ernie, Sr. Joan Oberle, Diane & I, formed the first RCIA team and welcomed many new members into the parish community. We have served in the parish under numerous pastors & administrators: Fr. Ernie, Fr. Dan (multiple times), Fr. Ben, Fr. Joseph, Fr. Andrew, and many more, and now Fr. Pat. I have also served in the Tribunal at the pleasure of four archbishops: A/B Francis Hurley, A/B Emeritus Roger Schwietz, A/B Paul Etienne, and Archbishop Andrew Bellissario.

I was blessed to be able to assist at the altar, to preach the Word of God, to baptize many of your children, to witness many of your wedding vows, and, sadly, to assist at many funerals of your loved ones, including Fr. Ernie and Sr. Loretta. But now it is time to move on. Happily for you, Deacon Sandon and Sharlet are here to serve the diaconal needs of the parish as the latest Deacon Couple, as Fr. Ernie would always say. Hopefully more men and women from the parish will follow in their footsteps. Two couples are already in diaconate formation from the parish.

In Arizona, we will continue to be a part of our parish of All Saints in Mesa, and I will continue to function as a Judge in the Tribunal for the Diocese of Phoenix. Our daughter, Cindy, whom many of you have known over the years, will remain in Anchorage, in an assisted living home, near Our Lady of Guadalupe, where she is well established. She will be our ongoing link to Alaska, since we plan to spend time with her on a regular basis throughout the year. We hope to see many of you when we return on those visits.

And so it is with great sadness that we bid farewell to all the many friends that we have made here at Holy Cross over the years. We will keep you, the priests, the deacon couple(s), and all the staff in our prayers. May God continue to Bless Holy Cross Parish.

Deacon Bill & Diane

Farewell Celebration

Sep 24

We will be honoring Deacon Bill and Diane Finnegan for more than 30 years of service to our parish on Sep 24. Join us for food, fellowship and fond farewells next weekend after the 11am Mass. Please see the table in the fellowship hall to help us create a spiritual bouquet of prayers, cards, and memories, as well as sign the guest book. Please no gifts, as they are downsizing.

—Pope Francis, World
Communications Day, 2022

Merchant mariners, fishermen, port workers, and others working in the maritime industries have special pastoral needs to remain connected with their faith. For over a century, Apostleship of the Sea (AOS) has served merchant sailors around the world by providing sacraments and spiritual renewal through port chaplaincies, as well as hospitality, recreational opportunities, and communication with loved ones at home.

In 2013, Apostleship of the Sea of the United States of America developed Stella Maris, the only smartphone app for Catholic merchant sailors. As technology and code systems advanced, the original app became obsolete. In 2022, AOS-USA, using a grant from the Catholic Communication Campaign, rebuilt the app to work on iOS and Android phones. The updated app keeps Catholic seafarers close to their faith by including a directory of AOS chaplains across the United States and around the world, daily prayers and reflections, a feature that allows sailors to submit their own prayer requests, news, and a cruise ship feature that lets cruise passengers know which ships have Catholic priests on board.

Your support of the Catholic Communication Campaign helps AOS-USA engage and build community among Catholic seafarers and their families.

Hunger Action Month

Every September, people all over the nation recognize Hunger Action Month, a time to take a stand against hunger in America. This year the need is higher than ever, and St. Francis House Food Pantry is serving an average of 116 households each day. By raising awareness about hunger, donating food, and supporting local food pantries like St. Francis House, you can help fight hunger and make sure that every person has access to the food they need.

Here Are 3 Ways You Can Help:

1. Make a Gift to St. Francis House Food Pantry

You can support our work and help us continue to feed hungry Alaskans by donating money or packaged food. To give online, visit cssalaska.org/donate. Food donations can be dropped off at 3710 E. 20th Ave, Monday-Thursday 1p.m. to 4p.m. and Fridays 9a.m. to 4p.m.

2. Host a Donation Drive

Host a donation drive at your workplace, church, or place of meeting! Contact Kelly at kmullin@cssalaska.org for details.

3. Spread the Word!

Help your friends and neighbors understand the importance of Hunger Action Month by sharing what YOU can do with a healthy meal:

1. Go to cssalaska.org/HAM and print out the HAM can sticker. Fill in the blank to share what a healthy meal allows you to do each day to raise awareness around hunger in Anchorage.
2. Tape the sticker on a can of food and take a photo with it.
3. Post the photo to Facebook or Instagram with the hashtag #HungerActionMonth. Don't forget to tag Catholic Social Services! We're @CSSalaska on both Facebook and Instagram.

HUNGER ACTION MONTH

An average of 116 families visit St. Francis House Food Pantry every day

September is Hunger Action Month!

Every September, people all over the nation recognize Hunger Action Month, a time to take a stand against hunger in America. St. Francis House Food Pantry serves an average of 116 households every day. A year ago, this number of visits would've meant an extra busy day; now it's the new normal. Thank you for stepping up to fight hunger in our community. Together, we can make sure each of our neighbors has a healthy meal and a full stomach.

For more information and to find out how you can help, go to cssalaska.org/ham.
